

December 4, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Re: Star ratings for Maryland elementary, middle and high schools

Dear CLF Stakeholders, Families, Teaching Superstars, Community Leaders & Supporters,

As you may have seen in the December 4, 2018 article of the Baltimore Sun

“Maryland has debuted a new school accountability system that gives parents, students and teachers a way to easily tell how well their school is doing. Every public school in the state is assigned a rating, from a minimum of one star to a maximum of five stars, based on several factors, including academic achievement, absenteeism, graduation percentage, curriculum, and performance of English language learners.”

[Full article here: <https://www.baltimoresun.com/news/maryland/education/bs-md-school-rankings-20181203-htmlstory.html>]

CLF School Name	Stars Awarded	Ranking Points Earned	Percentile Rank
CSP High School	5	82	93%
CMIT North High	5	75	89%
CSP Middle School	5	82	97%
CMIT North Middle	5	75	83%
CMIT South Middle	4	74	78%
CMIT North Elementary	4	69	66%

Your Chesapeake Lighthouse Foundation would like to acknowledge and congratulate ALL of the amazing, often unseen efforts of our parents-teachers-students, every day, that compound to make these STAR RATING successes possible.

Well earned CLF schools' family. We're so proud of you.

Kindest personal regards,

Hakki Karaman,
Chief Executive Officer

Yilmaz Ak, M.Ed.
Chief Academic Officer
Chesapeake Lighthouse Foundation
6151 Chevy Chase Dr. Laurel, MD 20707
T. (301) 776.2300